Church Office Wesley House, 19, Chapmangate, Pocklington YO42 2BG

John and I have a caravan in Wales which we visit for a few weeks each year. I go to the Methodist church in Tywyn whilst we are there. On my first visit I did wonder 'have I made the right choice' as on the same road there is a thriving, very busy Baptist church, but I went back again and kept going back. Although half the service is in Welsh, including some of the hymns, this small band of Christians are so warm and welcoming that I feel quite at home. During the Welsh content I have a quiet time which I find peaceful and soothing. I'm not sure how they keep going as the church is the size of Pocklington church but they only have about ten members. The services are held in the vestry which is more intimate and warmer!

Now as we go down the high street we bump into people we know and have a chat. That sense of belonging is important to us all and I feel so blessed to have found this in Tywyn. God definitely guided me to the right church and I pray it is still open next season when we return. God bless them.

Christmas Shoe Boxes

If you would like to fill a shoe box or give items to go in a box, Melbourne are once again joining with linktohope.co.uk. Gifts for family or elderly boxes would be gratefully received by any member from Melbourne. It costs £3 to send each box. The boxes go to Eastern Europe at the end of October. Look on the website for more information.

Anybody out there? Pocklington Messy Church Messy Church is looking for people to help out with any of the following jobs:

- Setting tables and chairs out
- Helping in the kitchen to prepare food for the families and team
- Welcoming families into the building
- Helping to supervise a craft activity
- Singing songs with children and families
- Door keeping (simply watching the door to make sure children don't run out.) You could read a book at the same time if you like!
- Telling bible stories to the group
- Praying with the group
- Chatting with them

If one of these things sounds like something you could do on the 3rd Tuesday of the month, or you'd like to know more, please get in touch with Amy. Don't worry – getting in touch doesn't mean you'll be automatically signed up for everything! Looking forward to hearing from you.
